MURDER CHARGE

Woman (54) appears in court accused of killing her husband

A WOMAN has been charged with murder after her husband was stabbed with a knife at the couple's home.

Susan Lowe (54) was arrested after police were called to a terraced house in Long Ley, Harlow, on Sunday night.

Officers discovered the body of Ronald Lowe (43) who had suffered a single stab wound to the chest. Paramedics were unable to save him and he was pronounced dead at the scene.

The area around the secluded row of houses was cordoned off as forensics experts spent the following day examining the scene.

According to his page on social networking site Facebook, Mr Lowe went to Brays Grove School and was playing an on-line poker game just two hours before police were called.

This week grieving relatives and friends visited the property to leave floral tributes to him, while neighbours spoke of their disbelief at the incident.

One told the Star: "This has come as a huge shock to me. It really hits home when something like this happens on your doorstep and you have the police knocking on your door to ask questions. It's terrible."

Another neighbour said: "We've never had anything like this happen around here before. It's a quiet neighbourhood where everybody seems to keep themselves to themselves."

"I've never really had much to do with the couple but they always seemed nice enough. It's horrible when a tragedy like this happens right under your nose."

Mrs Lowe appeared at Harlow Magistrates' Court yesterday (Wednesday) accused of murder. She was remanded in custody pending a hearing at Chelmsford Crown Court.

Calls to curb drink fuelled aggression

NEARLY 2,000 attacks were carried out in Harlow in just 12 months – almost half of which are thought to have been drink related.

The shocking figures are contained in a Government report which details levels of crime in areas across England, as well as a Whitehall survey of crime victims.

In the neighbouring district of Epping Forest, there were just under 1,500 violent attacks during the same period of 2008-09, 700 of which were said to have been caused by or involved alcohol.

This week Harlow Conservative Parliamentary hopeful Robert Halfon added his voice to calls for current licensing laws to be tightened to reverse what he called the the apparent uncontrolled spread of binge-drinking.

"Labour's licensing laws are too lax," Mr Halfon told the Star. "We don't want a return to the old days where every pub shut at 11pm but local councils like Harlow and Epping Forest need greater powers to tackle the binge-drinking and violence that plague our town centres.

"The reckless sale of high-strength, bargain-basement alcohol is damaging health and fuelling violence. We need to make our town centres feel safe at night once again."

Mr Halfon said community pubs in Harlow and the surrounding villages should not be tarred with the same brush as "irresponsible vertical-drinking bars or fast food outlets" which sell alcohol into the early hours.

But Harlow MP Bill Rammell said alcohol-related crimes of violence had fallen by a third nationally since Labour came to power, while violent crime in Harlow and Epping Forest had reduced by eight per cent and six per cent respectively from 2007-08 to 2008-09.

However, he added: "One incident is still one too many and the Government is committed to reducing alcohol-related crime and disorder, in particular under-age drinking and binge drinking.

"Our record includes a £4.5m enforcement campaign in 190 areas to tackle alcohol-related crime and disorder, the development of the £4m national Know Your Limits social marketing campaign and the launch of the youth alcohol action plan.

"I will continue to press locally to ensure that alcohol related crimes remain a priority for police and health agencies."

Shop where all items for sale have been recycled

SHOPPERS will be doing their bit to help people in Africa when they splash their cash at a new re-use shop which opened in Bush Fair on Friday.

The store run by local charity ECCO is stocked with recycled goods picked up from homes around the town.

The items are sold to help fund the collection scheme which is run in partnership with waste contractor Veolia and Harlow's Waste Electronic and Electrical Equipment collectors and recyclers, WEEE.

But surplus clothes and books as well as working computer and electrical equipment will be shipped out to villages in Africa to help the disadvantaged.

Julie Quinlin, from ECCO, said: "It's great to be working in partnership with the council, bringing this shop back into use and helping to revitalise Bush Fair."

Tony Hall, chairman of the council's environment and community committee, added: "It's a huge waste when perfectly good furniture or electrical items are just thrown away when it can be used by someone else."

Family devastated by theft of bulldog

A FAMILY has been left devastated after thieves stole their dog.

Two-year-old bulldog Alfie, pictured, was taken from the back garden of his home in Roydon last Monday (August 24).

A man wearing a hooded top was spotted climbing over the garden fence and then seen handing the dog over to an accomplice.

Alfie's owner said: "I can't believe someone would do this. My children are devastated and we just want Alfie back."

Anyone with information about Alfie's whereabouts should contact PC Kelly Cattley at Epping police station on 0300 333 4444.

Make it real.

A FAMILY is gearing up to raise hundreds of pounds for charity by taking part in an adrenaline-fuelled European banger race.

John Maybury (55), wife Julie (50) and daughters Becky (24) and Anna (22) have been racing their clapped-out Rover from France to Portugal in a three-day rally to raise funds for Gemin-1, a cause which furthers education in developing countries.

Rules of the Sucata Run state no car competing can be worth over £200, leaving the Maybury family cramped in the badly-maintained car as it covers 300 miles a day.

"The car was bought for £180 off Ebay," said Becky. "It sometimes overheats and when that happens we have to turn on the car heater which can make it uncomfortable to say the least.

"We are confident we will cross the finish line though and we intend to drive back afterwards."

The Mayburys, of Arkwrights, Harlow, are competing under the team name Maybug. They set off for their adventure on Thursday and are not due back until later this week.

They hope to raise £1,000 for the charity by completing the challenge which saw them set off with 50 other entrants from Rouen and head for Cabo da Roca in Portugal, Europe's most westerly point.

Becky added: "I have done charity work before but never done a rally or anything like this so it will be an experience.

"We haven't all been available at the same time over the August Bank Holiday weekend before now. We are all really looking forward to it."

Free Telecare for over 85s

ELDERLY residents are being encouraged to take advantage of Essex County Council's pledge to offer free Telecare services to new users aged 85 and over.

For 12 months only, people who enjoy the freedom of living in their own home but want the peace of mind of knowing support is available at the touch of a button can register for the free service.

David Finch, cabinet member for adult health and community wellbeing at County Hall, said: "The pledge is at the heart of the county council's belief that our elderly residents should have the right to the best possible quality of life, the freedom to stay in their own homes and the ability to make their own choices about their future care.

"Essex has a growing elderly population and we have a responsibility to ensure that they feel supported during their later years."

For more information and to find out how Telecare can help you, call 0845 6037630 or visit the website at www.essex.gov.uk/telecare.

Churches welcome new curates

CONGREGATIONS at two of Harlow's churches have welcomed new curates to the town.

Rev Sue Knight and Rev Ola Franklin took up their posts at St Paul's Church, in the town centre, and St Mary's Church, in Old Harlow last week.

Mrs Knight grew up in Wales and has two grown-up children. Before she married she worked as a student nurse. She trained for ordination at St Mellitus College.

Ms Franklin grew up in Islington and trained as a teacher before changing career. She also studied for ordination at St Mellitus College.

Gun fanatic jailed for breaking ban

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsexnews.co.uk

A MAN with a fascination for guns but who was banned from owning a weapon was caught in woods with an air rifle, a court heard.

As Clive Edwards was approached by police officers in Quarry Spring Wood, Harlow, on March 28 last year, he put the gun away in a case and walked towards them.

Carolyn Gardiner, prosecuting at Chelmsford Crown Court on Tuesday, said: a member of the public had seen him holding the rifle and then try to hide before police were contacted and officers went to the area.

"They went in and saw the defendant pointing the rifle in the woods," said Miss Gardiner. "He was approached, he put the gun in its case and he approached officers himself."

The officers found it was an air rifle with a 13-inch long barrel and knew that he was prohibited from having a weapon as a result of a previous sentence imposed upon him.

Edwards (46), of Pennymead, Harlow, admitted possessing a firearm when prohibited from doing so.

Vicky Morgan, representing Edwards, said in mitigation he had gone to fix a sight on the gun at the request of another man. She added that there were no pellets or ammunition.

Jailing Edwards for 12 months, judge Christopher Ball told him: "The public doesn't want you anywhere near weapons. It's too great a risk to the rest of us."

Referring to his previous record, full details of which were not revealed in court, the judge continued: "It's easy to understand why you're just the sort of person who should not go anywhere near a weapon of any sort."

"We've got to let people know out there if you commit crime and go anywhere near a weapon you will be treated harshly."

"It strikes me you are someone with an obsession or fascination with guns."

Big cat spotted in shopping centre (but don't worry, it's only a life-size model)

EAGLE-eyed shoppers noticed an addition to the landscape at Harlow's Harvey Centre this week with the arrival of an endangered cheetah.

The life-size model of the fastest animal on land is a collection box which roared into the shopping mall yesterday (Wednesday) to raise money for the Wildlife Heritage Foundation, a cause which helps protect big cats from extinction. Pictured with the cheetah and barn owl Gertie are Tom Clarke from Paradise Wildlife Park, which supports the work of the WHF, and Jake Barnett (5).

Thousands expected at free-for-all Town Show

ONE of the biggest outdoor family events in the Harlow calendar will draw thousands of people to the Town Park on Sunday.

About 20,000 people are expected to visit the council-run Town Show which offers a wide range of entertainment and activities free of charge.

There will be live music from local bands, a fun fair, marquees filled with activities and around 60 stalls.

Other attractions include a display by the Sir Marmaduke Rawdon's Regiment of Foot 1643-6 - a regiment of the King's Army and part of the English Civil War Society - and a number of street entertainers who will be wandering around giving impromptu performances.

For the first time there will be a crèche which will include parent and baby facilities.

The environment and sport are just two of the themes that will be showcased in the marquees, giving local clubs and societies the chance to publicise their activities. Local businesses, charities and other organisations will also be represented.

Most of the music will come from the bandstand, starting at 2pm. There will be performances by Harlow Brass Band, Bite, 33 Revolutions, JB3, Pheel Lizzy (Thin Lizzy tribute), Ubaldo Esteban and the Soul Fingers. Bootleg Blondie will close the show from 7.15-8.30pm.

The fun starts at noon on the showground with live music provided by Harlow Steel Band and The Hot Potato Synco-pators.

Suite sorrow for burglary victim

BURGLARS who broke into a flat in Milwards, Harlow, helped themselves to the owner's three piece suite.

Police were called after the owner returned from a two-week stay with his sick father to find his furniture was missing. Nothing else had been taken.

Detective Constable Kerstin

Chissel said: "This flat is overlooked by dozens of others on the housing estate so someone would have seen at least two people walking away with this cream and white sofa suite in the past couple of weeks."

"They would have had to load it into a van and this would have been at least 50 metres away."

FSA levy will not affect the work of credit union

SIR, In response to the letter by councillor Lorna Spenceley about the payment due to the Financial Services Authority this month (Star, August 27), it is a levy to protect Harlowsave Credit Union's deposits and will not adversely affect us.

The amount due is approximately £450 which is an annual payment and has been budgeted for. Thus it will not affect the services offered to our members and the wider community.

We thank councillor Spenceley for the interest she has taken in Harlowsave and look forward to her continued support as we grow and expand our services in Harlow. As she rightly points out, here at Harlowsave we help people access financial services on affordable terms. During this difficult economic climate we are busier than ever but coping with the demand.

Frank Hull, chairman
Harlowsave Credit Union Limited

Commitment should be praised, not attacked

SIR, I would like to respond to the rather personal attacks on councillor Lorna Spenceley by a gaggle of vindictive Conservative councillors.

Councillor Spenceley has moved to a village an hour away. She has decided that she wants to complete the four-year term of office she was elected to serve which has just nine months to run.

Unlike many other councillors she is not a quitter. She is well aware of the requirements needed for this task.

The fact she wants to complete the commitment made to the people of Staple Tye is something that should be praised, not attacked. She has history going back decades with the town she loves, has family members still living or working here and can complete a commitment made to the people of her ward. Why is this something to attack her with?

I thank her for all her work past, present and future. We should all wish her well in her new life to come when her term of office ends.

Finally, to her petty opponents I say drag yourselves out of the gutter.

Confusion over town's educational provision

SIR, Parents and students in the Harlow area may well be very confused following the advertisement that appeared last week for Harlow schools in which it was stated they they all offer educational provision from ages 11-18.

At the same time on its new website, Harlow College announces that all of the town's A-levels will be taught at Harlow College.

There may also be confusion because of the lack of consultation concerning the reshaping of post-16 education and the absence of Harlow College governor minutes from the website since March.

My worst fears are that parents and students are suddenly finding themselves travelling around Harlow or being taught by itinerant teachers.

The re-creation of sixth forms in Harlow looks more and more like the failed consortia experiment of the past. Instead of the schools and college talking about pride and excellence, perhaps they could spell out what is actually going to happen to sixth-formers.

Rising fuel prices are filling me with dread

SIR, Every time I fill my car up with petrol I have a renewed sense of dread as prices seem to be going ever upwards, substantially, by the day.

My car runs on diesel and recently when I was in Darlington it was £1.01 a litre. Passing a BP garage in central London last week I noticed diesel was £1.09 a litre. Admittedly BP is usually the most expensive petrol company but nevertheless the huge price represented a sign of things to come.

If the price increases were not bad enough, Gordon Brown seems determined to go ahead with petrol tax

Tories are showing complete disregard for tenants' wishes

SIR, Sadly it is no surprise to discover that Harlow Council's Conservative administration showed complete disregard for tenants' wishes in refusing to bid for a Government subsidy to halve the annual rent increase (Star, August 27).

Instead of paying an average rent increase of £5.03 a week since March, tenants could have been paying just £2.12 extra. Furthermore, the council has the proud distinction of being one of only three authorities in the whole of England refusing to help its tenants.

Distressed tenants in sheltered housing were also ignored when the Tories pushed through their policy of redesignating many sheltered housing complexes. Valued warden services were reduced and communal activities cut. Meanwhile, an additional £900k, designed by the Government to help tenants, was quietly squirrelled away in the Housing Account.

The same stony faces dismissed widespread community opposition to slashing the funding of Harlow Welfare Rights and Advice by 76 per cent, particularly affecting residents most in need. Nor did they flinch from axing grants to voluntary groups trying to support vulnerable people.

Have they listened to the howls of protest at the likely impact of car parking charges in local shopping centres on struggling small businesses, community and charitable groups? Instead they smile benevolently at the top eight earners in the council while awarding them their additional, generous pay rises.

At a time when more people than ever need support, Tories seem to be grinding away relentlessly at those struggling for survival, but it's not too late to change course. Reconsidering help for tenants right away would make a start.

Jean Clark, Labour group deputy leader

increase of 2.3p this week.

The Government continues to penalise the motorist time and time again. This latest increase could not come at a worse period particularly as so many people are struggling to pay the bills because of the state of the economy.

What is astonishing is that fuel prices indicate that we in England pay 20 per cent more on petrol than most of our European neighbours because we have higher taxes to pay.

The question is, are we going to see fuel prices reach the horrific prices of last year? And if so, what on earth will be the effect on our faltering economy? It doesn't bear thinking about.

I tend to find that the cheapest garage for me in Harlow seems to be on the A14 just off the M11. The only catch is that sometimes the pumps are empty and only the more expensive premium fuel is available.

Robert Halfon
prospective Conservative MP for Harlow
Latton Bush Centre, Southern Way, Harlow

Death traps for pets

SIR, A little cat recently went missing for a week for the second time.

On both occasions she returned home the day after her owner put up posters asking people to check their sheds, garages and outbuildings. Coincidence, or did someone see the posters and check their shed?

Either way, can I please ask people to just take a minute when they have opened sheds etc to check that no small creatures have sneaked in before they close the door.

As winter gets nearer there will be less need to go to sheds. Think how awful it would be to open up in the spring and find someone's beloved pet dead.

Thumbs up for rejuvenation of town centre

By CHRIS MOSS
mossc@hertsessexnews.co.uk

AN overwhelming majority of Harlow residents support plans to revamp the town centre, according to public feedback on multi-million pound proposals for the redevelopment of The High.

Initial designs for the regeneration scheme – a joint project by Harlow Council, developers Stockland, architects Engle and Harlow Renaissance – were put on public display in July and around 400 feedback forms have now been returned.

Of those, 91 per cent agreed there was a need for redevelopment.

Four out of five said the proposals on display – which included plans for a new department store, hotel, retail and residential space – were a good way to proceed with the redevelopment, while many said the plans would help to improve Harlow's overall image and put the town back on the map as a commercial centre.

Andy MacDonald, head of major projects for Stockland, said he was delighted with the response.

"All these comments will be fed into the planning process and will allow us to create a stronger set of plans that will benefit the people of Harlow," he added.

Council leader Andrew Johnson

GRAND DESIGNS: This could be the view along Terminus Street if plans for the regeneration of Harlow town centre go ahead said: "The plans have really created a positive buzz around the town and we had a fantastic response during the public consultation.

"The overwhelming public support has increased our determination to deliver this scheme for Harlow."

However, not all the response has been positive. As reported in the Star two weeks ago, Harlow Civic Society – set up to preserve and protect the town's heritage – has criticised the plans, warning that Harlow does not have the necessary infrastructure to support such a radical transformation.

● The plans and public feedback will be on display in the Harlow Renaissance marquee at the Town Show on Sunday.

Feedback sought on new housing plans

BLUEPRINTS which set out how developers propose to regenerate a part of Old Harlow will be soon be subject to public scrutiny.

Residents are being invited to a public exhibition of the plans to build homes in Station Road. The consultation comes after council chiefs appointed Moat Homes to oversee the regeneration of Clifton Hatch, Prentice Place and the Old Harlow site in February.

Extensive consultation on the scheme has already taken place but it is hoped Monday's exhibition of the Old Harlow plans will iron out any further problems.

Moat's senior development manager, Jason Amos, said: "This is a fantastic site within walking distance of Old Harlow's High Street and other amenities. We know these homes will be really popular and people will be proud to live here."

The 38 houses and six flats have been designed by architects PRP and are mainly aimed at families and will be for sale and for rent.

Simon Carter, chairman of Harlow Council's policy and resources committee, said: "This is an opportunity for Old Harlow residents to view the designs and find out more about the housing proposals, which will help regenerate their area. Comments from residents will help develop the designs further

"New homes on the Faircroft site will make a big difference to revitalising Old Harlow."

Resident feedback from the exhibition will help shape detailed design work before a second exhibition takes place in October ahead of a formal planning application.

Old Harlow, Clifton Hatch and Prentice Place are subject to planned improvement work after they were identified for major neighbourhood regeneration under the Government's Growth Area Funding projects. The schemes will provide new housing, parking facilities, retail and community facilities.

Outline planning permission has already been obtained for Clifton Hatch and Prentice Place.

Monday's exhibition will be held at St Johns Arts and Recreation Centre, in St John's Walk, from 3-7pm.

Do you know man police are seeking to quiz over attack on rail passenger?

TRANSPORT police have issued this CCTV image of a man they want to question about an assault which left a train passenger with a broken arm.

The attack occurred on a train travelling from London to Harlow at around 12.30am on Sunday, July 19.

The 25-year-old victim was travelling with his family when a group of men began verbally abusing other passengers.

"They then began verbally abusing the victim before assaulting him, leaving him with facial injuries and a broken arm," said Detective Constable Joe McClenaghan. "The group then left the train at Harlow Town station."

Three men, all from Harlow, have been arrested in connection with the incident and have been bailed pending further police enquiries.

DC McClenaghan added: "We are working to build a complete picture of what took place on board the train and are asking anyone who recognises the man pictured in the CCTV images or has any information that may help our investigation to contact us."

Pupils celebrate exam successes

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor
louise.sassoon@hertsessexnews.co.uk

PUPILS at schools in Harlow are continuing to achieve GCSE results above Government-set targets.

Hundreds of pupils collected their results on Thursday in anticipation of good grades after a record year nationally.

And they did not disappoint as they exceeded Whitehall benchmarks of at least 30 per cent of pupils achieving five or more A*-Cs including English and maths.

At St Mark's School, in Tripton Road, 62 per cent of students achieved five or more A*-C grades including English and maths.

Headteacher David Brunwin said: "This is a very good performance from this year group who have, from their entry into the school in September 2004, impressed their teachers with their application to study and their collective determination to succeed."

Passmores School, in Tending Road, celebrated after 42 per cent of students got five or more passes at A*-C including English and maths.

Headteacher Vic Goddard said: "Being able to give out the results to our students knowing that they have achieved the grades required to take the next step in their lives is amazing."

"What makes that even more satisfying is knowing that, throughout their journey at Passmores they have also been given the opportunities to excel at sport, drama, dance, art and so many other things. The grades are the summit of a magnificent educational journey."

Thirty-eight per cent of students at Stewards School, in Parnall Road, were rewarded with five or more A*-Cs including English and maths.

Headteacher Rhonda Murthar described their achievements as outstanding, adding: "Our Year 11 students have been a credit to themselves and to Stewards."

"They are to be congratulated on these fantastic results. My thanks also go to all the staff for the hard work, support and professional commitment which has made this possible."

Their achievement was mirrored at Mark Hall School, in First Avenue, where 38 per cent of students also walked away with five or more A*-Cs including English and maths.

Headteacher Jane Hadlow said the achievement was testament to pupils' hard work, adding that the figures were particularly good considering high numbers of students took the exams. "Our students all did fantastically well," she said.

At Burnt Mill School, in First Avenue, staff were just as pleased after pupils met targets for achieving five or more A*-C including English and maths based on their prior attainment.

Headteacher Stephen Chamberlain said: "We are absolutely delighted with the results this year and congratulate all our students on their hard work, excellent levels of attainment and achievement."

Some of this year's star performers

STEWARDS SCHOOL: Luke Dangerfield was awarded 7 A*s and 4 As while Chloe Harbutt achieved 5 A*s and 9 As.

BURNT MILL SCHOOL: Sheena Panchal was awarded 2 A*s and 4 As while Ben McDonnell achieved 1 A* and 7 As.

PASSMORES SCHOOL: Lauren Barrett gained 15 GCSE passes with 10 A*s and A grades. Chris Gale and Matthew Rayner achieved 13 and 11 GCSE passes respectively, both achieving 8 A* and A grades.

ST MARK'S SCHOOL: Maria Lynch gained 10 A*s and 5 As and Jenny Gurnett was awarded 7 A*s and 8 As.

MARK HALL SCHOOL: Abi Armstrong got 10 A*s and 3 As while Bonita Chung was awarded 8 A*s and 5 A grades.

Man denies murdering 62-year-old stab victim

A MAN accused of stabbing to death a 62-year-old disabled woman in her car has pleaded not guilty to murder.

Scott Riley (26), of Parsonage Leys, Harlow, is charged with the murder of Jennifer North, also known as Jennifer Macaree.

He appeared at Chelmsford Crown Court on Thursday and was remanded in custody for a case progression hearing on October 26.

It is likely the case will come to trial in January.

Ms North died of multiple stab wounds after being attacked inside her Vauxhall Corsa car at Hadley Grange, Harlow, on February 28.

Residents defy council lockdown

By CHRIS MOSS
moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

FURIOUS members of a Harlow residents' association were forced to hold a meeting in a public car park after being refused access to their local community centre.

The keyholders to 190 The Briars were contacted by Harlow Council ahead of Thursday's planned gathering and told the keys to the building would be confiscated if the Abbotsweld, The Briars, Copshall Close and Gladden Court Residents' Association were allowed in.

But defiant members, who had turned up to discuss persistent rumours that up to 200 neighbourhood bungalows were set to be demolished, braved the chilly evening air to convene the meeting outside.

Earlier in the same week the council published a statement on its website denying knowledge of the association and stating it had never been contacted by the group, claims angrily refuted by the association's vice-chairman Roy Jackson.

"For the council to claim it has never heard of our organisation or to say officers and councillors had not been invited to the meeting is ridiculous," he said. "Our chairwoman, Sally Sambridge, had contacted officers and councillors well in advance."

"We just want to know what's going to happen to our homes but all the powers-that-be seem intent on doing is obstructing the actions of ABC and undermining us. We just want some straight answers for a change."

Lee Dangerfield, chairman of the council's housing committee, said it could not formally recognise ABC as a residents' association until the group had its own constitution.

"This is standard practice for all residents' associations across Harlow," he said. "They need to have their own constitution voted for by all members of the committee."

"I was contacted by Sally Sambridge several weeks ago but I was not aware she was writing on behalf of ABC. I had never heard of the group until I saw a flyer for the meeting which I was unable to attend as I was on holiday."

He added: "These rumours circulating about the bungalows need to be quashed and I will be arranging a meeting as soon as possible to reassure residents that nothing will be decided without a full public consultation."

Siege at house was 'just a cry for help', lawyer tells judge

A MAN who barricaded himself into a house in Harlow during a 90-minute stand-off with police has been spared jail.

Harry Baker (23) allowed his girlfriend and their eight-month-old baby daughter to leave the house during the siege at Little Grove Field in May.

Police called in a specialist negotiator and taser deployment unit.

The court was told Baker, of Pitman's Field, Harlow, suffered from an adult form of attention deficit hyperactivity disorder.

On Thursday he was given a six-month prison sentence suspended for two years for affray and a concurrent three-month sentence also suspended, for possessing an offensive weapon. He had pleaded guilty to both charges at an earlier hearing.

He was also made the subject of a community order with two years supervision and a requirement to attend an alcohol treatment and integrated domestic abuse programmes.

Neil Fitzgibbon, appearing for the defendant, said in mitigation Baker had responded well to the help he had been receiving while in custody.

Mr Fitzgibbon said his client had not threatened his girlfriend during the siege and had eventually surrendered to police. "This was a cry for help more than anything else," he added.

The court heard he told police he would not have done anything with the knife and he had been drinking on top of his medication.

Phone thief threatened youths with screwdriver

A MAN who threatened three teenagers with a screwdriver and stole a mobile phone from one of them has been jailed.

Chelmsford Crown Court was told on Friday that Samuel Shanko (22), of Peartree Mead, Harlow, thought one of the youngsters was "taking the mickey" because he asked what the time was when the platform clock at Harlow Town rail station was behind him.

Stephanie Farrimond, prosecuting, said Shanko picked up a 10-inch screwdriver which was being used by maintenance teams who were working at the station and waved it in the faces of the three friends.

By COURT REPORTER

He then ordered them to get out their mobile phones out. When one of them did so, Shanko grabbed it and left, telling them: "Remember my face".

When he was arrested three months after the incident, which took place on April 1 last year, Shanko denied being at the station. But a few weeks later he was spotted by the boy who had his phone stolen and was re-arrested.

Alex Lindsey, representing Shanko, said in mitigation that on the day of the incident he had been on his way to Princess Alexandra Hospital for the birth of his daughter. He was in a state of anxiety and had over-reacted.

"He cannot offer an explanation why he did it other than he was agitated about getting to the hospital," said Ms Lindsey. "He was also intoxicated and had been taking drugs and had his nose put out of joint by someone taking the mickey out of him."

Shanko, who pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery, was jailed for two years.

Empty shop offers a window to display young people's artwork

AN empty shop front has been given a new lease of life thanks these stunning images.

The paintings were created by residents of Occasio House and local youngsters as part of a five-day project to decorate the five floors of the half-way house in Playhouse Square.

And the images have now formed part of the multi-agency Window Works project which brings together artists and local people creating vibrant artworks to decorate retail units in the town centre.

Artist Matt Atma, who directed the Painting on Big Boards project which was supported by housing association East Potential's culture and arts team and funded by Essex County Council, said:

"Occasio House suffers sometimes from a bad image in Harlow but during the project the response from the young people involved has been absolutely overwhelming in terms of creativity, commitment and productivity.

"It's a wonderful achievement for the residents and local young people who do everything to be active and improve their lives.

"They are indeed very proud of the fact that their artworks can be seen by all now."

Children catch the nature bug

YOUNGSTERS took advantage of the fine Bank Holiday weather to enjoy a spot of bug hunting and art work at a Harlow beauty spot.

More than 100 children and their parents headed for Parndon Wood Nature Reserve on Monday to take part in activities including pond dipping, making dragonfly cutouts and searching for creepy crawlies. The event formed part of the reserve's summer activities programme which also saw families enjoy a dragonfly and damselfly walk on Sunday.

would like to thank family, friends and neighbours for their kindness, sympathy and floral tributes on the sad passing of David.

Acknowledgements

EMMA LOUISE SERDET

(Nee Berger)

David, Glynis Lesa, James and Megan would like to thank everybody that sent condolences, and donations, and especially to those that attended her funeral. What a fantastic tribute! Big thankyou to Jo for the kind words said about Emma.

Our special thanks go to Graham Ward, who arranged and conducted the humanist ceremony, and to Micheal Pinnock and his team at FJ Pinnock Funeral Directors, both of whom made a very difficult day go so smoothly.

Last and by no means least a big thankyou to Glyn's mum (June), and sister (Deb) who both worked tirelessly throughout those difficult two weeks, and to all those others too numerous to mention that gave us so much support.

No stopping the world's fastest human

LIGHTNING struck twice when the world's fastest man, Usain Bolt, continued to break records and add to his collection of gold medals.

The Jamaican-born sprinter was the star of the recent Berlin World Championships when he smashed records in both the 100-metre and the 200-metre events.

He shattered his previous 100 metre world record, which he set at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, by an incredible 0.11 seconds to finish the race in a lightning-fast 9.58s.

No-one in 88 years had shaved as much time off a previous record.

Even more impressively, the athlete nicknamed Bolt from the Blue destroyed the 13-year-old 200 metre world record of 19.30s when he finished the race in an incredible 19.19s.

Astonishingly, the unstoppable 23-year-old was more interested in cricket as a young boy and would have taken up the sport if his gift for sprinting had not been discovered.

In the five years since he turned professional he has set an incredible three world records and two Olympic records.

When asked how he felt after his victories, he told reporters: "I am on my way to becoming a legend. It will be great for the Queen to dub me Sir Usain Bolt!"

World War II pilot and the buried bomb

This week Nostalgia heads north to the Yorkshire seaside town of Scarborough for our weekly trip down memory lane.

Although in no way related to Harlow in any geographical sense, the towns are joined by a snippet of history which, until a couple of weeks ago, had been buried for more than 60 years.

According to local newspaper the Scarborough Evening News, a copy of which was kindly brought into our offices by a Star reader, more than 800 people in two villages had to be evacuated a couple of weeks ago after a huge Second World War bomb was found.

The RAF Disposal Unit was called to carry out a controlled explosion

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor

louise.sassoon@hertssexnews.co.uk

of the 500lb device while the residents of Ebberston and Allerston were taken to safety.

The newspaper has since revealed the bomb ended up near the villages after a bomber piloted by 19-year-old Jack Crawford crash-landed in the field on November 28, 1940.

The connection with Harlow is that Mr Crawford came from the town. He was one of five crew members from 102 Squadron aboard the plane, which was returning from operations in Germany when it was hit by flak over the German coast.

It is believed the plane suffered engine problems and struggled back to northern England, dropping to a height of just 1,000ft.

Mr Crawford tried to pilot the plane back to one of many designated crash landing strips but was forced to bring it down near the east Yorkshire villages when its good engine began to splutter.

He ordered the crew to evacuate and was the last to bail out before the wreckage crashed and burst into flames.

According to the newspaper report, Mr Crawford was relieved of his duties captaining a bomber because his superiors thought he should have been able to bring the plane down safely.

Do you know any more about Jack Crawford or perhaps you are related to him? If so, write to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow, Essex CM20 1JW or contact us by email at louise.sassoon@hertssexnews.co.uk.

Nostalgia update

THE article about Harlow's Civil Defence is still generating quite a lot of response. This week reader Margaret Akus sent in these two photographs which show her late husband, Charles, and others members of the CD team.

"I remember them going to Danbury Park and also Harlow, although I'm not sure if it was Bush Fair or the Pinnacles area," she writes.

"I would like to know who the two girls were, not that I'm jealous." If you know the answer, then please contact Nostalgia in the usual fashion.

A group of parents are making a last attempt to get their children into Stewards School. Armed with placards, they and their 23 children will protest outside the school at the start of the new term.

Binmen blamed

Harlow council is blaming its own dustmen for the hold-up in refuse collections which has left rubbish piling up outside homes for three weeks. But the National Union of Public Employees says the council is to blame for cutting crews last month.

Dark days of rail

Fears Harlow's off-peak rail service will return to the dark days of slow trains only have been expressed by the Harlow Town Commuters' Association. The group believes the train service will be reduced from the current three trains per hour – two fast and one slow – to just two slow trains in off-peak times.

Woolworth's has confirmed reports that staff are to be made redundant from its Broad Walk store. In total, 40 of the store's 90 employees will leave their jobs in mid September. Two of the store's three levels will also close by next year.

Let's go do, keep doing and do some more!

EVERYONE wants to be good and do their bit, but where do we start and how do we find the time?

The last year has seen a boom in the amount of people looking to volunteer. YouthNet, home of the UK's volunteering website do-it.org.uk, recorded a massive rise of 115 per cent in the number of people applying to volunteer in 2008 compared to 2007.

Some volunteers are choosing to devote their time to good causes in order to help their quest for employment during the recession, while others are simply looking to give something back to the community and learn new skills.

Whatever the reasons, volunteering is very much of the moment and a 'win win' for all involved.

Volunteering has long been a key part of large companies' commitment to social responsibility. More creative, innovative, engaging and, most importantly, more fulfilling for employees than simply donating financially; the benefits are huge for all concerned.

One such company is Honda. As part of its long-established commitment to being a 'company society wants to exist'; its philosophy revolves around doing (often small) things which make a big difference.

Whether it's creating a zero emission car, a motorcycle with an airbag or a generator to power an Antarctic expedition, the company is a team of 'doers'.

Recently 60 Honda (UK) staff took a day out to help with three projects close to its headquarters near Slough in Berkshire. Over the day, the team rejuvenated a nursery for people with learning disabilities and an allotment for people without gardens, as well as cleaning the depths and surroundings of the Slough Canal Basin, filling 40 refuse sacks and unearthing a mattress and plastic baby doll amongst other things!

Felicity McClintock, volunteer co-ordinator for British Waterways London, which looks after the canal, appreciated the effort: "British Waterways is thrilled by the hard work and enthusiasm of Honda's staff involved in the recent clean-up event."

"We really appreciate the support of volunteers who give up their time to help us keep the waterways clean and tidy for all to enjoy. Every year we spend $100 million maintaining the UK's canals and rivers, removing everything from aluminium cans to shopping trolleys from the water and towpaths."

Emma Knight, who works for Honda (UK) and volunteered at Cherry Orchard Allotments, said: "The team spirit was amazing. Everyone got stuck in, had a great laugh and thoroughly enjoyed giving something back to the local community. We all left with a great buzz and are still talking about it in the corridors. We can't wait for the next time."

Just a week later, a six-strong team from Honda's PR department successfully braved the Three Peaks Challenge, climbing more than 11,000 feet in 26.5 hours to raise more than £3,100 for Child Bereavement Charity, BEN.

That's just 66 staff, in one company, taking a day out each in just a two-week period. Little things adding up to big things, remember?

So how do you become a doer? A good place to start is your local Volunteer Centre <http://www.do-it.org.uk/wanttovolunteer/aboutvolunteering/vcfinder> where you can find out about opportunities in your area.

Another route is the website, do-it.org.uk, where you can search a UK wide database of volunteering opportunities. do-it.org.uk receives more than 35,000 applications each month from volunteers looking to be matched with one of its one million plus opportunities to volunteer.

Extending out its 'Doer' attitude nationwide, Honda UK has recently teamed up with do-it.org.uk to as part of its launch campaign for the Honda Insight hybrid car – carrying the strapline 'Everybody wants to be good'.

The company has put a special volunteering search tool on its website – Honda.co.uk – which matches volunteers to environmental projects looking for support.

Honda is also asking each of its dealers to nominate a local or national environmental charity – to which it will donate $5 for every Insight test drive taken.

As Ian Armstrong, marketing manager for Honda UK puts it: "This is an extremely positive and optimistic initiative, helping the wider community ... real action and real results."

So visit the website in the advertisement below and in the words of Honda's recent 'doer' advertisement... "Let's go do, keep doing and do some more. Start a to-do list. Because there's a million and one 'do's' still to be done."

On the hunt for doers

We believe in doing, not just talking about doing.
So we got stuck in and started doing things in our local community.
But we need more doers.
If everyone started doing,
think how much we could get done.

BURNT MILL SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC***

BURNT MILL provides academic excellence in a caring community where learning counts and people matter. The school is characterised by a dedicated governing body, well qualified staff, impressive levels of achievement and opportunity, an excellent partnership with parents and a commitment to high standards of behaviour.

We are proud to be a Specialist College of Performing Arts, with Ofsted commenting on our 'first rate performing arts productions.' Our dynamic, innovative curriculum and impressive range of extra-curricular activities ensures that all students remain engaged, challenged and motivated throughout their unique 'learning journey'. This has led to the Ofsted comment that: 'the level of enjoyment seen in lessons and around the school is high'. Ofsted also described the tracking of academic progress as good and that in the very best lessons the use of assessment is outstanding. In 2008 our 5+A*- C GCSEs including English and Mathematics was 37 %, significantly above the Government target of 30%, and those achieving higher grades including functional English and Mathematics was 58%. We also received certification from the SSAT to recognise the fact that our 5 + A*- C results including English and Mathematics have improved year on year between 2005 and 2008 by ten percentage points or more. We stood at joint 21st out of the 153 schools listed as making this kind of improvement.

Most importantly, students are proud of our school; it is where 'student voice' really makes a difference. This pride has been reflected in the acquisition of national awards such as the Healthy Schools Award, Artsmark Gold Award, The International School Award, Sportsmark, Silver Eco Schools, Effective Partnership with Parents Award and we are members of the National Association for Gifted and Talented Children.

MARK HALL SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC***

We are a forward looking school with traditional values, developing the learners of today for the ever changing world of the future.

At Mark Hall School we believe that it is our purpose to create an environment where everyone is empowered to grow and develop as responsible citizens and lifelong learners. We are committed to developing the range of skills, knowledge, attitudes and understanding, of all members of our community. In practice this means that we aim to model and develop:

- Positive attitudes, dignity and respect for all
- Caring and supportive working environment for all
- High aspirations for all our learners
- A school which is safe, fair and honest
- A shared responsibility for learning with all our partners
- Engagement and enjoyment in all aspects of learning, leading to high achievement and personal success

The achievement of excellence in all that we do is at the heart of the school. Our positive partnerships, with parents and carers, promote the value of learning and ensure that all members of the community are respected and encouraged to make a positive contribution. We encourage all people to use their talents with pride and seek to improve in all that they do to realise their dreams and aspirations. We believe this to be true for students and staff alike.

Students, parents and inspectors tell us that they are pleased with the direction that the school is going in and are supportive of 'what we are about'.

OFSTED commented in this year's report that recent actions are having a "dramatic impact in raising the quality of teaching"

"Significant progress had been made thanks to the determination and strong strategic direction of a good Headteacher" OFSTED 2009

As a Specialist Sports College we have invested in a state of the art Sports Centre that has considerably extended the learning facilities for all of the community. This has allowed the school to offer an increasing range of activities, including specialised coaching and pathways into accredited clubs within the community. The diversity of the curriculum ensures that we engage all learners and create pathways to learning that promote achievement and success. The Sports College has been instrumental in driving forward this diverse experience for all the young people at Mark Hall.

This is an exciting time for you as parents and carers, but also for all the young people as they move from one phase of learning and education to another. It is important to us that you feel that we have the best interests of you and your family at the forefront of our work as a school community. We are excited to welcome you into our learning community where your child's learning today will make them a success in the world they will shape for tomorrow.

Every Child Every Chance Every Day

PASSMORES SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC***

Ofsted said that "Passmores School provides an outstanding education for its students. As a result, the progress they make in their academic work is outstanding." We are very proud of becoming the first school in Harlow to receive the top grade of 'Outstanding' from Ofsted and strive each day to 'Improve Upon Our Best'. We are a dynamic, forward-thinking centre of learning. Here the traditional values of self-discipline, good manners, hard work and respect are the foundation of all the school does. Passmores is passionate about learning. It offers the highest priority to teaching that excites, motivates and challenges all young people in a caring atmosphere, where achievement is valued and celebrated. All students are challenged to develop new skills, knowledge and understanding across all subjects. They develop greater confidence and self-esteem as they become independent learners and are given increased responsibility. We work equally hard with all students, with our able, gifted and talented programme being recognised for the quality it offers.

Passmores' designation as a Specialist School for Technology recognises excellence in science, mathematics, ICT, and design and technology. This has brought considerable investment in 'cutting edge' technology, which is used to make learning fun and to maximize attainment in all areas of learning. Although it specialises in technology, Passmores has an excellent reputation for the breadth and quality of its curriculum provision and we have been asked to support other schools in the development of their curriculum. Our innovative pastoral system makes Passmores a very different place to the norm, with students learning the importance of respecting and supporting each other.

Passmores aims to provide a 21st Century education to meet the needs and aspirations of all young people and we are delighted that we will be moving to our brand new £25 million school building, situated on the corner of the A414 and Southern Way, in September 2011. This will offer the young people unprecedented facilities and opportunities to further extend their learning. We have an amazing chance to take our school to the next level and look forward to sharing this with our new students.

ST MARK'S WEST ESSEX CATHOLIC SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC

St Mark's West Essex Catholic school serves the needs of young people in Harlow and Epping from Catholic backgrounds as well as practising members of other faiths. Close to the town centre, St Mark's provides continuing education from 11 to 18 years.

With a warm and friendly atmosphere, St Mark's offers an education based on Gospel values where high standards of achievement, behaviour and uniform are expected and accepted by all. Pupils achieve excellent results, with achievement above the National Average at both Key Stages 3 and 4; successful post-16 courses ensure clear progression routes for all pupils at 16, 17 and 18-plus. A purpose-built Sixth Form centre, a learning resources centre, and a planned Sixth Form extension building (to be completed in June, 2010) support the learning of over 270 Year 12 and 13 students taking A/S, Applied and A2 courses. Just over 300 students have received offers of places at university in the past 5 years.

St Mark's was designated a Business and Enterprise Specialist School in September, 2004, and offers a broad and balanced curriculum where challenge and enterprise and work-related learning encourage achievement. A specialist Business and Enterprise Centre was opened by the Secretary of State for Education and Skills in September 2005.

In the past five years, St Mark's has been listed in the 'Most Improved' top 100 schools for KS4 achievement on three occasions. With dedicated and hard-working staff who serve and care for your children, St Mark's remains a first choice school. In November, 2006, the Ofsted inspection team began their report with ... "St Mark's is a good school. It is a place where everyone is welcome."

STEWARDS SCHOOL WITH WESTVIC***

"STEWARDS School is a good school with outstanding features where every child matters a great deal." This is the opening line of Stewards' 2007 OFSTED Report which recognises the many positive features of the school. "Pupils achieve well as a result of excellent care, guidance and support systems allied to good teaching" where "the majority of lessons are good or outstanding."

Inspectors reported that "pupils are excellent ambassadors for their school, reflecting their outstanding personal and social development.... Their enjoyment of school is exceptional."

In 2009 the school was the first in Essex to achieve the Cultural Diversity Quality Standard Gold Award and in her report the assessor wrote:

"Students at Stewards demonstrate a secure sense of identity, self belief and self respect. They are confident, content, courteous and generous."

These comments reflect the importance that is placed at Stewards both on academic success and on developing pupils to become confident young people able to make a positive contribution to society.

Stewards is a Science Specialist School and considers itself to be in the forefront of innovative development in all areas of the curriculum with a strong focus on providing exciting and challenging lessons for all pupils. Stewards has received awards from the Specialist Schools Trust in recognition of the exceptional progress made by pupils during their secondary education, with Stewards placed in the top 5% of schools nationally between 2006 - 2008.

Stewards' partnership with pupils, parents and the community encourages excellence in all aspects of school life and this is evident when visitors come to Stewards. Pupils have a wealth of opportunities to take responsibility and to extend their learning. Stewards has received national awards such as the International Award, the Healthy Schools Award, Artsmark Silver, the Education Extra Distinction Award and the Sportsmark Extension Award in recognition of the broad programme of out of hours activities, clubs and trips available to pupils.

The facilities at Stewards are first class and further development is carried out each year. At Stewards you will find excellent ICT facilities, Science laboratories, a PE centre and swimming pool, modern technology rooms and a Performing Arts suite housed in bright and welcoming surroundings.

is the name for the new 6th Form Centre opening in September 2009 which is being run by all the schools in conjunction with Harlow College. In effect all Harlow schools featured in this advertisement now offer educational provision from ages 11-18

Nationwide - "House Prices Rise Again"

For the 4th month in a row Nationwide reports house prices have risen aided by a shortage of property on the market and the all time low in interest rates.

Mortgage lending is also at a 9 month high and lenders appear to be gradually softening criteria.

It's too early to call the recovery but at least it's positive news.

Dancers sparkle in ballet spectacular

REVIEW

HARLOW BALLET ASSOCIATION SUMMER SPECTACULAR

Playhouse Studio, Harlow

HARLOW Ballet Association continued the celebration of its 50th birthday with a sparkling programme in the Studio theatre on Saturday.

Eleven new dances from young choreographers aged 11-18 competed for the HBA's Choreographic Shield. Three teachers created modern numbers in their own styles while Claire Rees produced a short but charming sequence from the classical ballet Le Corsaire.

First up was Hayley Burns' I Like It Like That, choreographed with a sensuous Latin feeling underlining the jazz beat. This was swiftly followed by Barbara Murray's nod to the Blues Brothers entitled Shake A Tail Feather, enchantingly and exuberantly danced by the younger members of the school, with Joby Dixon and Hamish Scott standing out.

The first of the competition pieces was Lydia Ventre's lyrical Running Free, set to Michael Nyman's well-known music from The Piano and this was followed by a kaleidoscope of entertaining and varied pieces finishing with Sophie Hull's charming Danca de Libelula to Mozart's Rondo Alla Turca.

While the judge singled out Chloe Gregory's I Love You, Holly Gregory's inventive Cracks in the Crystal Ball and Alex Cowley's Unrequited Love – movingly danced by Leanne Sanders and Paul Tarling – for special mention, the main prize was awarded to Jessica Gudgeon for Slow Me Down, a dance in which the performers moved in exciting and intertwining patterns to the music of Emmy Rossum.

Showtime for Steps youngsters

BUDDING ballerinas and talented tap-dancers taking part in a week-long dance workshop had the chance to dazzle friends and family with their new moves at a show held in the Great Parndon Community Centre Friday.

The culmination of the five-day course hosted by Harlow dance school Makin' Steps, the intimate show featured youngsters aged four and upwards performing routines in everything from ballet to street jazz styles.

It was the first summer workshop the school has ever held, and tutor Scott Simpson said it had been a resounding success.

"The kids had been asking us to hold some kind of summer course for ages so we thought we'd give it a go and I was delighted at the way it turned out," he said.

"We had 35 youngsters in total, some of whom had never performed in a show before. They all did fantastically well."

"They were so excited to get the opportunity to perform in front of their mums and dads at the end of the week and the amount they took on board from the classes through the week was very impressive. They can be very proud of themselves."

Two further prizes were awarded to Brontë Davis-Horrey as the student with the best attitude to her work and Sophie Hull as the most improved young dancer.

The climax of the performance was Michael Branwell's multi-layered Capriccio Italiani, with Terri Cowdery in magnificent form as the Spirit of Italy, ably and strongly partnered by her father, Dave Cowdery as the Soldier dedicated to Italy and Hamish Scott as the boy she recruits.

Harlow Ballet will miss Hamish as he starts his new career as a full time student at the Royal Ballet School. I am sure I am not the only person to hope that he, like so many old HBS dancers, remembers his roots and comes back to dance at The Playhouse again one day.

WIN Family tickets to Peter Pan the Musical

FORMER Harlow Playhouse manager Phil Dale returns to the venue this month to produce and direct Phoenix Theatre Company's debut production of Peter Pan the Musical.

The show features a cast of more than 100 local performers and heralds the return to the stage of many well-known and experienced performers.

J.M Barrie's classic tale of the boy who never grew up is brought to the stage with an unforgettable musical score, stunning costumes and state-of-the-art theatrical effects, including flying by the world renowned company Flying By Foy.

Ticket prices for this magical production start at $10, but this week we are offering you the chance to win one of two family tickets (each one for up to four people) for the 7.30pm performance on Saturday, September 3.

Phil, founder and principal of Phoenix Theatre School based in the performing arts department of Burnt Mill School, was responsible for producing The Playhouse's annual pantomime which became nationally recognised as the largest community pantomime in the UK. He also formed the Playhouse Theatre Company and produced many hit shows including Wizard of Oz, Oliver! and Bugsy Malone.

"Peter Pan is the ideal show for our return to The Playhouse," he said. "I know that audiences have missed the large-scale community productions we used to stage and this is a return to the type of show the venue used to produce. The cast have worked incredibly hard to produce a show that will enthrall, excite and inspire children of all ages."

To enter the competition all you have to do is answer the following question: Who wrote Peter Pan? Email your answer, along with your name, address and daytime telephone number, to star@hertssexnews.co.uk. Alternatively, can enter via our website at www.harlowstar.co.uk by clicking on 'Competitions' in the Lifestyle pages. In the Name of Competition box enter Peter Pan at The Playhouse. All entries must be received by midday on Tuesday, September 8.

● Peter Pan the Musical runs for 10 performances at Harlow Playhouse from September 12-19. Tickets are available from the box office on (01279) 431945 or from www.playhouseharlow.com.

(500) DAYS OF SUMMER
certificate 12A, time 1h35m

LOVE can be uplifting and inspiring, but it can also be cruel and unforgiving.

If revenge is a dish best served cold, then writers Scott Neustadter and Michael H Weber are serving up a deep-frozen, three-course meal here and inviting us to tuck in.

Tart one-liners are tossed hither and thither and there's even a glorious song-and-dance sequence through Central Park complete with an animated bluebird that recalls Amy Adams in Enchanted.

But once again, as the omnipresent voiceover keeps reminding us, this is no fairy tale. Tom (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) has a passion for architecture and he is enraptured by the Big Apple with its mix of old and new: skyscrapers next to churches, urban sprawl separated by the verdant tranquillity of Central Park.

During the day he writes platitudes in greetings cards, impressing his boss Vance (Clark Gregg) and co-workers McKenzie (Geoffrey Arend) and Paul (Matthew Gray Gubler) with his ability to find the perfect phrase for every occasion.

But his humdrum routine changes with the arrival of Vance's new assistant, Summer (Zooey Deschanel). Tom is smitten, and within days he tells McKenzie and Paul confidently: "It's official. I'm in love with Summer".

However, the courtship doesn't match up to Tom's old-fashioned ideals. He's a hopeless romantic, while Summer speaks plainly when she confesses: "There is no such thing as love. It's a fantasy."

As the 500 days unfold, Tom comes to realise that while Summer might be perfect for him, he's not her Mr Right Now or even her Mr Right Ever.

(500) Days Of Summer is a haunting tale of relationship woes, distinguished by strong performances from the two leads.

The chronology is intentionally fractured to juxtapose contrasting episodes in the relationship. Director Marc Webb conjures some interludes that simply take the breath away.

Scriptwriters Neustadter and Weber cannot resist a cute, upbeat coda. Perhaps they aren't so bitter and twisted after all.

Segregation of an alien race

DISTRICT 9

certificate 15, time 1h52m

PRODUCER Peter Jackson presents this intriguing, documentary-style sci-fi film in which aliens are forced to live and work in the slums of South Africa.

Based on director Neill Blomkamp's six-minute short Alive in Joburg, a race of extraterrestrials has landed on Earth via large spaceships hovering above Johannesburg.

These 'non-humans' are quickly confined in an area called District 9, a makeshift refugee camp monitored by an agency called Multi-National United.

Before long the extraterrestrials begin to break the rules, leaving the confines of the camp, committing crimes and frequently clashing with the authorities.

As the civilian population begins to feel increasingly threatened by the visitors and grows resentful at the amount of money being spent on maintaining District 9, tensions begin to rise.

But when a government agent is exposed to their biotechnology, the aliens think they've finally found a kindred spirit.

still showing

G:FORCE (3D+2D) Light-hearted mix of live action and digital trickery which follows a team of guinea pigs recruited to covertly fight terrorism.

ICE AGE 3: DAWN OF THE DINOSAURS Sid the sloth is taken to a dangerous subterranean kingdom after stealing dinosaur eggs and his loyal friends begin a rescue mission.

HARRY POTTER AND THE HALF-BLOOD PRINCE The boy wizard and his friends face their toughest test yet.

End of the road
for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Blow for Rams as key player suffers injury

RAMS' key player Paul Eynon is doubtful for the new league season after sustaining a calf injury in Harlow's narrow victory at Hitchin in a friendly on Saturday.

The lock was forced off after three minutes and could miss the London division two north east opener at home to Romford on September 12.

A weakened Harlow side showed strength in depth to beat Hitchin.

Two good tries came from forward breaks by hooker Chris Davies and prop Danny

Hitchin 22, Harlow 26

Rugby friendly

Stonehouse from close-range moves.

Harlow's backs tackled extremely well and denied Hitchin some good attacking opportunities.

Wayne Heapy, playing at centre, was a key player throughout and was rewarded for his efforts with a well-worked try.

Scrum-half Neil Fitzpatrick produced the try that clinched the game. He broke from 20 yards out and ran through the defence to score.

Full-back Rob Mackie kicked three out of four conversions for Harlow.

HARLOW: Stonehouse, Davies (Lewis 40), Ephgrave, Hawkins, Eynon (Williams 3), Barr (Hayden 40), Bowering (Clark 40), Roberts, Woodington (Fitzpatrick 40), Gregory 70) Hills (Smith 70), Banks, Heapy, Vanbeck, Grimley, Mackie.

Other friendly results: Dagenham II 10, Harlow III 24; Harlow IV 57, East London II 15.

Tigers roar to a replay

Harlow Tn 1,
Kingsbury London Tigers 1
FA Cup, preliminary round

THE Hawks were left to rue their inability to take chances when they were held to a draw by Kingsbury London Tigers in Saturday's preliminary round FA Cup tie at Barrows Farm.

Harlow Town subsequently regretted this when they were beaten in a replay three days later (see back page).

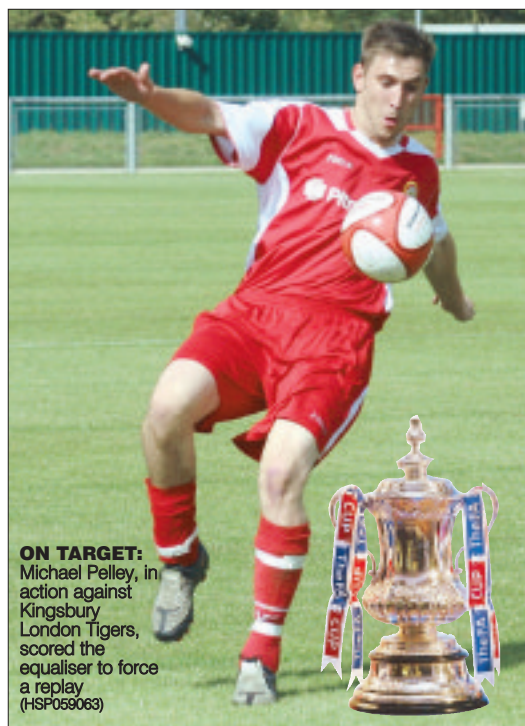

Kingsbury took a surprise lead on 27 minutes. A corner from the left resulted in the ball going in off the head of the unmarked Marcus Lansiquot from eight yards out.

A controversial moment came on the hour mark when Hawks midfielder James Edgerley hit a shot which slammed against the Kingsbury crossbar and appeared to cross the line before it rebounded back into the danger zone but was eventually cleared by a defender.

"We should have reacted quicker [to the rebound]. We did not put our bodies enough on the line when the ball was to be won," said assistant boss Glynn Mason.

No goal was given from Edgerley's initial effort, angering the home faithful.

Harlow's frustrations built up as substitute Gavin Taylor fired over the bar when well placed on 70 minutes.

(HSP059063)

The hosts finally equalised on 76 minutes. A cross came in from the right and was not cleared before Michael Pelley managed to force the ball over the line with his outstretched leg.

Mason added: "The quality of our performance was just not good enough. We did not step up to the mark.

"We did not impose our game on them and did not defend well."

HARLOW TN: Waite, Green, Clemo, Clarey, Pelley, Akinnawo, Mason, Malimbue, (Dobson 55) Osei, J. Edwards (Taylor 45), Edgerley. Subs not used: Doolan, Simpson, Manangu. Att: 142.

Heavy defeat

A HEAVY defeat was suffered by Harlow Squash Club's second team at Letchworth in division four of the Herts Squash League. First string Vinh Tram lost 3-1 and second string Peter Izatt lost a thriller by three sets to two.

Third string Richard Lewis was beaten in straight sets. The first team were without a match.

Free kits for sides

TOP quality kits are to be given to new teams entering a Harlow five-a-side league - thanks to a sponsorship deal with Football Mundial.

The new league starts at Passmore School in Harlow this month.

League spokesman Matt Barnfather said: "We are extremely pleased to have secured a sponsorship deal to enable all our teams to have free kits for the league."

To join the new league call 01937 841440.

Rangers' exit

LANGLEY Rangers have been forced to withdraw from the Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District Football League due to a lack of players.

The Church Langley-based side had been in the premier division for the last few seasons.

Their decision to fold means Potter Street will play in the premier division next term.

Minnows cause FA Cup upset

"Their guy had made a perfectly good tackle for his first booking and he just pushed one of our players for his second booking."

The replay was end to end from the beginning but the deadlock was not broken until the 40th minute.

Renars Zarchenko was put clean through and delicately chipped over Hawks keeper Jamie Waite and into the net.

Three minutes later, Harlow were awarded a penalty when Jason Mason was fouled in the box.

However, Taylor's spot-kick saw Valentin pull off a brilliant save, diving far to his left to keep Kingsbury in the lead.

Shortly after the break, Cata fired against the Harlow woodwork before the rebound was put out of play by Zarchenko.

After Kingsbury went down to 10 men, Harlow equalised on 63 minutes when substitute Daryl Doolan was allowed the space to fire in.

After Harlow went down to 10, Kingsbury scored from a slick three-man move started and finished by Cata, who made no mistake from eight yards out.

HARLOW TN: Waite, Green (sent off 78), Malimbue, Clarey, Clemo, Pelley, Akinnawo (Ositola 75), Osei (Doolan 55), Taylor (J. Edwards 65), Mason, Edgerley. Subs not used: G. Edwards, Manangu, Simpson.

'Osagie can make 2012 Olympics'

Osagie competed in the 800m event at Gateshead on Bank Holiday Monday.

He clocked 1:48.95 despite being tripped up early on in the race and then finding himself boxed in.

Winrow, who reached the 800m semi-final at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, said: "It was a big opportunity for him and he's a bit disappointed but it was good that he was exposed to that level of competition. He is tired at the end of the season."

"Stuff [the trip] can happen like that and the most important thing is he has got an indoor season and an outdoor season [under his belt]."

He added: "He has set a PB this season and is getting back to where he was before he had one or two years with injuries. I can see him making the Olympics in 2012. He has had a good season."

Osagie faces a tough winter to make 2010 even brighter. "It is about development. He now needs to get a good winter behind him and come back better. It would be good if he could get to an event like the European Championships next year," added Winrow.

Youngster gears up for British Schools Championship test

Athletics

BILLY Falconer warmed up for his first taste of the British Schools Championships this weekend with valuable points for Essex in their Southern Inter-Counties victory at Watford on Sunday.

The 16-year-old, who starts a sports science qualification at Harlow College today (Thursday), was 5th in the high jump despite competing in the U-20 section against athletes up to three years older than him. He will represent England in the Championships at Cardiff this weekend. At an open meeting in Newham, East London, several Harlow-based athletes produced strong performances.

James Palmer (Mark Hall School) won the hammer and improved his personal best from 18.94m to a whopping 33.42m. This moved him to 8th in the eastern region.

St Mark's student Amy Larkin (16) was second in the javelin with a throw of 30.37m (PB).

She was also third in the 800m (2:10).

Tom Richards, also now studying A-levels at St Mark's, won the hammer with a PB, as well as the javelin. The 16-year-old recorded 26.40m and 45.00m respectively.

Dan Yaxley, also starting a sports science qualification at Harlow College, switched from track to field and was second in the hammer with a PB of 16.18m.

Dan was also 2nd in the 800m (2mins 5secs).

Despite a strong headwind, Tyler Bown (14) was 4th in the 100m and 200m. The Mark Hall School student clocked 12.73s and 24.9s respectively.

Stewards School student Ebony Clark was 4th in the U-17 girls 10m (13.83s).

Her school-mate Sam Bengue was 4th in the 800m (2:15).

Shadow's ability can light up Friday's race

Welcome to Inside Track, our column that gives you the reader an insight into Harlow Greyhound Stadium as our top tipster reveals his favourites for tomorrow (Friday September 4).

THE experienced PHILFEN SHADOW may not be the force of old but he certainly retains enough ability to be able to give his five opponents a running lesson this Friday night.

Perfectly housed in trap six, Shadow can leap out in front and draw clear down the back straight.

Last week's selection SWIFT LORNA was heavily supported to open her six-bend account, but suffered plenty of interference and finished a close up third.

All this bitch needs is a clear passage early and victory would be assured.

Other greyhounds worth a mention are the in-form LOSE YOURSELF and the strong finishing NO JOKE CHRISTY.

Selections for Friday September 4:-

7.30pm Duchess Malone; 7.45pm Lijon Classic; 8pm Puff Doggy; 8.15pm Celeb State; 8.30pm Ronnie's Kate; 8.45pm Hasitcometoths; 9pm Ardmayle Honey; 9.15pm Philfen Shadow; 9.30pm Baggies Boy; 9.45pm Lose Yourself; 10pm Swift Lorna; 10.15pm No Joke Christy.

Win completes Town's title hat-trick

Bengeo 202-6, Harlow Tn II 203-4

Harlow Tn II won by six wickets
Herts & Essex League, div four

A NEAT hat-trick was completed by Harlow Town Cricket Club when their second team defeated Bengeo to clinch the Herts & Essex Cricket League division four title.

Saturday's championship clincher came on the same day that Harlow Town's first team went through the entire season unbeaten.

The first team and the club's third team had already won the division two and seven titles respectively.

Harlow Town II fielded first at Bengeo and the hosts made 202-6 with Jack Elston claiming 3-48.

In reply, Town made a good start with skipper Scott Alderson scoring 30 and Shiraz Ali striking 68.

In a thrilling finish, Town

GOING UP: The Harlow Town second team celebrate promotion (HSP0590210)

needed 26 runs off the last three overs and completed a six-wicket win with three balls to spare thanks to a quickfire 16 from Darryl Pettengell.

The first team (233-4) beat Dunmow II (202) by 31 runs.

Charlie Coleman made an impressive 102 off just 83 balls for Harlow and his innings laid the foundation for a score which Dunmow never looked like overhauling.

Harlow Town III (107-3; Ashley Norcott 52 not out) ran out easy victors by seven wickets against Takeley II (104).

Potter Street finished third in division three after they gained a walkover against Little Hallingbury who were unable to raise a side.

BRAVE EFFORT: The Harlow first team will finish third if they defeat Buckhurst Hill at home on Saturday (s)

Luke's a lone star in defeat

DISTINCTLY second best would be the only way to describe Harlow's defeat at Hadleigh & Thundersley.

The visitors had only pride to play for and apart from Luke Heskett did not respond when they batted first.

In the absence of regular opener Lee Jessey, Heskett was promoted to open and he made light work of difficult batting conditions.

After a slow start, he struck an excellent 48 that included a huge six which cleared the fence perimeter and ended up on a nearby road!

Heskett eclipsed the gifted Maruf Chowdhury (17).

The wheels soon came off for Harlow when Hadleigh skipper Adam Fleming

Harlow 110, Hadleigh & Thund 112-1

Harlow lost by nine wickets

Essex Shepherd Neame League, division two shrewdly brought on his slower bowlers. Firstly, Aussie Dan Jackson removed Heskett when he was caught by Joe Robbins.

Jackson, in tandem with Tim Lowes, then demolished the rest of the visitors' batting.

A series of injudicious shots and a terrible run out also played its part as Harlow collapsed to 110 all out.

Harlow's response with the ball was poor as they failed to find the areas that the Hadleigh seamers had done earlier.

The hosts coasted to victory in just 13 overs for the loss of one wicket with young Joe Robbins making an excellent 68 not out.

Heskett (1-22) was Harlow's sole wicket taker.

James Butler, the Harlow skipper, said: "The match also highlighted a problem we have had all year. We have been unable to push on in the face of the slower and medium pace stuff during the middle overs of the game.

"We need to learn to work the ball around more and rotate the strike when boundaries are hard to come by."

Although Harlow cannot go up, they will be aiming to clinch third spot when they round off their campaign against Buckhurst Hill at home this Saturday.

Other results: 2nd XI division one championship - Harlow (149; Kalim Zada 45 not out) lost by 95 runs against Gidea Park & Romford; 3rd XI division one championship, Harlow (190) lost by 33 runs against West Essex (223).

Minnows cause FA Cup upset

A BLOW to the Hawks' morale came when they were knocked out of the FA Cup by Spartan South Midlands Football League side Kingsbury London Tigers.

The loss came just 10 months after Harlow Town reached the first round of the competition before they were knocked out by Coca-Cola League Two club Macclesfield Town in front of a crowd of more than 2,000 at Barrows Farm.

Harlow's heart-breaking exit on Tuesday to an 86th-minute winner came against a team one step below them in the non-league pyrami.

However, forward Gavin Taylor had a 43rd-minute penalty saved by home keeper Axinte Valentin.

Hawks defender Damien Green was sent off on 78 minutes following two yellow card offences. He followed Kingsbury's Marcus Lansiquot, who was sent off on 58 minutes following two cautions.

The game was locked at 1-1 and extra-time loomed before the tie was settled by an 86th-minute shot from Edson Cata.

Anthony Anstead, Harlow's manager, said: "I feel sorry for the fans and club. We showed some heart and desire - but not for 90 minutes.

"What bugged me most was not converting chances. We had three or four good ones in the last 15 or 20 minutes and did not work the keeper at all.

"The penalty miss was unforgivable. Damien Green being sent off just levelled it out."

Hawks boss to wield axe

Seven set to go as Town look to end bad run

ANTHONY Anstead is bringing in two new players but axeing up to seven following Harlow Town's sorry exit from the FA Cup.

The Hawks boss, pictured above, has signed striker Ashley Taylor-Forbes, who has a dual registration with Harlow's Blue Square South neighbours Bishop's Stortford.

Midfielder Mark Gradosielski, who has played for Stortford's Capital League reserve team this term, has also been signed.

The Harlow boss is refusing to name those players he has decided to release, until he has told them face-to-face.

Anstead said: "Potentially up to six or seven players will be released from the squad. Ashley will bring goals and Mark will be good in midfield.

"I have to bear in mind Herve's [midfielder Herve Malimabue] suspension which is coming up [after the player's red card against Wingate & Finchley]."

Anstead added: "It's not working. We have to take our chances otherwise we are not going to win games. We are lacking in confidence. We need to start all over again and get back to basics."

Whatever formation lines up for Harlow at Waltham Forest in the Ryman League division one north in two days' time, the Hawks desperately need a win as the league is the priority for Anstead.

His team have lost their last three league games following the promising opening day 4-2 victory over Great Wakering Rovers.

Anstead added: "Apart from the Wingate game we have not lost by more than a goal but we need to take chances."

Centre-half Liam Thomas is likely to be out for another two weeks with an ankle injury while defender Tom Querry is suffering from 'flu.
